REPUBLICANS HAVE FEW FIGHTS

NOMINATIONS OF DELEGATES TO TERRITORIAL AND COUNTY CONVENTIONS LAST NIGHT.

Precinct nominations of delegates to the Republican Territorial and county conventions were made last night on a generally harmonious basis. The event of the evening was the withdrawal of C. L. Crabbe as a candidate for sheriff of the county. Crabbe announced himself as a candidate for supervisor and was immediately given the unanimous endorsement of his precinct. Crabbe stated that his withdrawal was in the interests of harmony within the party.

The fight in the seventh of the Fifth is going merrily on, and is one of the few that are left. There are three tickets, a Vida ticket, a road ticket and a "Republican Labor party" ticket. Both Sam Johnson and Sheriff Brown have agreed to keep their hands off in this little contest and the rest of the party is in the position of the crowd that forms a ring to let disputants fight their troubles out.

The harmony plan agreed upon in yesterday's noon time caucus was generally endorsed. Kuhio also received some endorsements and in the fourth of the fifth strong resolutions were unanimously passed in favor of having A. G. M. Robertson remain as the head of the party in the capacity of chairman of the Territorial central committee.

The following are the various nominees:
